We apologise for the lack of pages in this issue, due to a burglary which took place early Sunday morning. Our fax machine, typewriter, computer, stereo etc., were taken whilst we were at Living Dream, leaving us in the impossible position of putting the magazine together in full, in time for printing. Worst of all they skanked all of our records, most of which were irreplaceable and trashed the place. Well boys, skanks and animals you are, ravers you are not.

Devious D, well known for his scratching has joined forces with J. Sly and Steve to form the Dance Enforcement Agents. They started last September, going under the name of Rampage but a soul outfit of the same name caused problems and so D.E.A. was born. Their first track 'You Think It's over Now' came out on white label in February and was released via Slip & Slide (Kicking Records) on March 9th. This band make an effort with their PA's and all the scratching and MCing is done live. They make an impact in mental outfits and in their own words they play 'to have fun and make the ravers happy'. We have two pairs of tickets to give away for their next live date, Baby Shrine at Great Yarmouth on March 21st. Drop us a line and if you're first, they're yours.

amyl nitrate

It is now possible to purchase Amyl in many clubs, openly and legally. We have had three cases reported to us recently of bad burns occurring to the face and hands when it is used the same time as smoking a cigarette. It is highly flammable, so be careful and if you spill it on your skin or clothes, make sure you wash it off.

flappers

Now open every Saturday till 6am and run by the Redemption crew. Resident DJ's Loft Groover and Rat Pack. Info on 081-653 3668.

LONDON LAZERS

London Lazars (and not Amazin Lazars) are responsible for the excellent display at Reincarnation at Herne Bay every month. Definitely worth checking out, as the lazars are imaginative and rave-enhancing.

living dream

Full report, with photos, next issue. If you were there, you know how it went, if not, you'll just have to wait.

elevation

Elevation would like to thank everyone who raved at Showtime 1992 on March 7th. Watch out for the payback on 17th April, Roller Express. Should be a Good Friday as only tenners for tickets.
